MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Office of Training Report for the Week Beginning 21 August 1972

1. The opening session of the Midcareer Course was held on 23 September with General Walters giving the welcoming address. Mr. Colby has accepted an invitation to attend an informal session in the Executive Dining Room the evening of 2 October.

25X1A 2. [REDACTED] a staff member of the Product Review Group/Intelligence Community (PRG/IC) met with members of the School of Intelligence and World Affairs to discuss the future training of analysts. [REDACTED] 5X1A stated that U. S. policymakers are becoming less interested in military intelligence and that if an era of relative peace should develop then the focus of U. S. intelligence will shift to longer-range estimative types of studies resulting in a considerable change in the types of finished intelligence. As part of his assignment [REDACTED] will investigate the training of analysts not only in CIA but also at DIA and State. Upon completion of his investigation he will forward recommendations if any changes in training programs are needed.
